VOTE IN SPECIAL ELECTION LIGHT

Very Little Interest Shown in Referendum to Determine New Sewerage Project.

BALLOTING IS INFORMAL

Ballots Cast up to Mid-afternoon Revealed Decided Opposition to Improvement.

Very little interest was manifested in the special sewerage election which in progress in Seymour today. The vote was exceptionally light up to the middle of the afternoon and the board did not expect a heavy vote during the remainder of the time that the polls are open. The voting started at 6 o'clock this morning and the polls will close at 8 o'clock tonight. Two precincts were designated, one north of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad and the other south of the railroad tracks. The voting place in the first is at Mrs. Blue's residence on Indianapolis avenue, and Thoele's store room, corner Chestnut and Bruce streets, is used in the south precinct.

The balloting is informal. Each board is composed of two members. No booths were erected and the marked ballots were placed in a basket or box. The boards are at liberty to count the ballots at any time. The name of each voter is recorded when the ballot is handed to him, and the total number of ballots cast when the polls close must tally with the number of names recorded.

During the middle of the afternoon a total of 260 ballots had been cast. Of this number 124 were cast in the south precinct and 136 in the north precinct. One board said that a count was made of the vote shortly after 12 o'clock and that about one in ten had voted in favor of the improvement. This would indicate that the result will be what had been generally predicted.

The negative vote that is registered is not taken to mean that the people oppose a sewerage system that is adequate for local needs, but that do object to the method of making the improvement. The issue, at best, was regarded as being confused and complicated and many people did not vote as they stated that they did not know exactly what the issue was. If the voters had been given an opportunity to express their sentiments as to whether or not they favored a preliminary survey of the present system and the preparation of plans and specifications for the proposed new system there is no question but that it would have carried by a large vote.

AUTOMOBILES COLLIDE ON WEST SEVENTH STREET

Drivers Sustain Slight Injuries When Cars Crash Near Walnut Street.

Two Ford automobiles were damaged shortly after 12 o'clock this afternoon when they collided on West Seventh street near Walnut street. Dr. H. Lett, West Seventh street, had just left his home in a machine preparing to make a professional call. He was driving east on Seventh near the south side on the street. As he approached the corner Harry Clark, driving a Ford north on Walnut street rounded the corner, turning west on Seventh. He made the turn but when directly opposite the Lett machine his car veered and darted south and crashed into it. Mr. Clark was thrown against the steering wheel and was slightly hurt. Dr. Lett sustained several cuts on his hand and arm from broken glass. Both machines were damaged to such extent that they could not be operated by their own power.

SIXTY LEGION MEN ATTEND BANQUET

Members of Seymour Post No. 89 Have Enjoyable Time at New Lynn Hotel Last Night.

SPLENDID MUSICAL PROGRAM

Various Committees Announced to Assist With Giving Independence Day Celebration.

One of the most enjoyable affairs ever held by the members of Seymour Post No. 89 of The American Legion was the banquet given at the New Lynn hotel Thursday night which was attended by about sixty former service men. The banquet started at 7:30 o'clock. The members joined in singing "America" following which a short welcome address was made by Carlyle H. Allen, the post commander.

A three course chicken dinner was served by Herman Chambers, proprietor of the Palace Restaurant. While the dinner was in progress the members were favored with a splendid musical entertainment given by Misses Evelyn and Gaile Tucker, who with their parents, are living at the New Lynn hotel. The entertainment given by the Misses Tucker, who are professional chautauqua entertainers, was thoroughly enjoyed by the Legion men. The program consisted of piano and clarinet selections, vocal

CASE IS DECIDED IN FAVOR OF THE PLAINTIFF

Rucker-Keith Case Tried Before a Jury at Crothersville Thursday Afternoon.

A verdict in favor of the plaintiff was returned by a jury after a short deliberation in the case of M. F. Rucker vs. Kerry Keith, for possession of a farm, which was tried in Justice J. S. Campbell's court at Crothersville Thursday afternoon. The case was recently tried before a jury in this city but no agreement was reached.

The defendant refused to give possession of a farm on which he is living. It was formerly owned by Dr. George B. Rader, of this city, who sold it several months ago to Mr. Rucker, the plaintiff. The defendant alleged that he had a contract with the former owner which entitled him to farm the land this season. The plaintiff's attorneys alleged that the contract which Keith held with the former owner did not give the defendant possession of the land for another year inasmuch as certain clauses in the contract had been complied with and that he had been given due notice to vacate. It was brought out in the case that the defendant wanted the former owner to pay him $150 to move off the farm. The defendant was ordered to vacate the farm immediately and give Mr. Rucker, the new owner possession.

The plaintiff was represented by E. P. Elsner and T. M. Honan and the defendant by John M. Lewis and Seba A. Barnes, of this city. Several heated arguments developed among the attorneys in the case while it was being tried.

JACKSON WILL BE WELL REPRESENTED

Many Republicans From This County Will Attend State Convention in Indianapolis.

INTEREST IS SHOWN IN PLANS

Senator New Will be Permanent Chairman—Senator Watson to Deliver Principal Address.

Local Republicans are manifesting a keen interest in the plans that are being formed for the Republican state convention to be held in Indianapolis May 12-13. The meeting is expected to be one of the most important assemblages held by the party in recent years and will be attended by many Republicans who will not participate officially in the business of the session. Particular interest is shown in the convention plans by those who expected to attend as delegates.

The program is being completed by the state committee and it is announced that Senator New will be the permanent chairman. Senator Watson will be invited to deliver the principal address and will serve as temporary chairman. Governor Goodrich and Will H. Hays Republican national chairman, will also give addresses.

Sidney R. Miller, an Indianapolis attorney, has been chosen as sergeant of arms and Clem R. Richards, of Terre Haute, will be secretary. Harry R. Styner, of Montmorency, will serve as chief usher.

The convention, which will be held in Tomlinson hall, will open with Senator Watson's keynote address at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, May 12. After a short noon recess Senator New will take his seat as permanent chairman and Governor Goodrich and Hays probably will be heard.

The delegates will meet by districts Wednesday evening and will select members of the various committees. The committees on resolutions, rules and permanent organization, and credentials, will go into session at the Hotel Severin at 9 o'clock that evening.

The second day of the convention will start at 10 o'clock with the selection of the delegates at large to the national convention. It is generally assumed that Senators New and Watson, Governor Goodrich and State Chairman E. M. Wasmuth will compose the "big four," although reports have been prevalent for some time that the "slate" is not looked on kindly by the supporters of Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood. The Wood forces have lent a ready ear to the agitation to seat women on the delegation and prominent women in the party have made representations to the leaders that they should receive a place on the delegation at large.

Following the selection of the "big four" and the ratification of the twenty-six district delegates, the convention will proceed to nominate a candidate for Governor, or ratify the choice of the primary if one of them receives a majority vote. In the event that none of the candi-

JOSEPH CAILLAUX GIVEN FIVE YEARS

Former Premier of France is Found Guilty of Holding Correspondence With Enemy.

TRIED BY FRENCH SENATE

Counsel for Defendant Asserts He Was Charged With Treason—Sentence Credit.

By United Press.

Paris, April 23—Joseph Caillaux, former premier of France, convicted of holding correspondence with the enemy during the war, today was sentenced to three years in prison by the senate sitting as a high court of justice. Since under the French law solitary confinement counts for one-fourth more than regular imprisonment, Caillaux having served twenty-eight months alone will be entitled to thirty-five months' credit.

Leon Bourgeois, president of the senate, announced that Caillaux had been found guilty of correspondence with the enemy immediately after the high court reconvened today. Attorneys for the former premier made a final effort to obtain his freedom. They pointed out that the convicted man never had been charged with correspondence with the enemy and hence had no opportunity to defend himself on that charge. His trial, they added, was only on the charge of treason.

One of the counsel of Caillaux said:

"The senate has decided to impose an additional penalty of five years' banishment upon Caillaux and to deprive him of electoral rights for ten years."

ATTEMPT IS MADE TO LYNCH NEGRO

Indianapolis Police Protect Wm. Ray Confessed Slayer of Martha Huff, From Crowd of 3,000.

ONE COLORED MAN WOUNDED

Police Under Direction of Chief Kinney, Form Guard Lines Around Marion County Jail

By United Press.

Indianapolis, April 22.—Sixteen men and boys were under arrest today following an attempt to lynch William Ray, nineteen, negro, confessed slayer of Martha Huff, fourteen year old white girl whose body was found in Eagle Creek Tuesday.

One negro was shot and slightly wounded last night when race feeling was at a high pitch.

A crowd estimated about 3,000 gathered in the neighborhood of the court house about 8 o'clock and yelled they would lynch the negro. The police formed guard lines at each street and alley leading to the jail and police headquarters and no person was permitted to pass, except on orders of a captain or lieutenant.

Chief of Police Jerry Kinney took personal charge of the situation. The only serious trouble occurred near the Severin Hotel. Many of the men and boys who had congregated near the court house earlier in the evening had gone to Georgia street to board cars for home.

Suddenly a fight started. Some say a negro attempted to cut a white man with a knife. Leo Harris, colored, started to run and two shots were fired at him, one striking him in the hip. John Gay, Louisville, was arrested and admitted shooting the negro.

WILSON CONTROLS PARTY IN MISSOURI

Administration Democrats Take Another Slap at Senator James Reed.

AT THE STATE CONVENTION

Election of Delegates at Large to National Convention is Victory for Wet Forces.

By United Press.

Joplin, Mo., April 23.—Senator James Reed was further humiliated early today by the Missouri Democratic convention when it refused to accept him even as a district delegate to the national convention. President Wilson's fight for a league of nations stood approved today by Missouri Democrats as the result of a midnight vote at the convention. The endorsement of Wilson's peace efforts was considered as ensuring the fight by Senator Reed against the league in the senate.

Because of Reed's fight on the league of nations administration forces flatly refused to let Reed go to the San Francisco convention, although the Fifth district had named him as one of its delegates. Opposition to Reed previously had been so strong that his friends had not offered his name as a candidate for delegate at large.

The convention remained in session all night. All resolutions adopted studiously refrained from referring to Reed.

Shortly after midnight the convention named four delegates at large to the national convention. Their election marked a victory for the "wets" and "drys" were defeated.

WILSON SAYS LEAGUE IS PARAMOUNT ISSUE

President Will Not Consent to Indorsement in a Perfunctory Way.

By United Press.

Washington, April 23.—President Wilson has served notice on his party that he will not consent to the League of Nations being made a campaign issue in a mere perfunctory way.

The President's position that the league is the paramount issue was made clear in a letter read to the Democratic Kansas state convention yesterday. Commenting on this letter today, leading Democratic politicians said it clearly indicated the president intended to insist that the Democratic convention at San Francisco and the party campaign afterward rely on the League issue almost entirely.

Recently many Democratic politicians have been drifting away from the League as the chief issue. They say the people are not interested in the league as the big question of the campaign; that to them the high cost of living is the one big issue. This group of Democrats is distinct from the Bryan group which would yield to the Lodge reservations and ratify the treaty on that basis.

INVESTMENT.

The difference between capital and investment and the security that ought to safeguard the latter are discussed in a very instructive way in the recent bulletin issued by the treasury department.

When you put your money into an investment, by the very essence of the transaction you let someone else have the use of it, expecting an income in return. When you put money into your own business and administer it yourself, that is not an investment. There, your money is your capital. Your investment begins when you part with your capital and give it to someone else to take care of for you.

The basis and foundation of an investment therefore is trust. When you invest your capital, you trust it to others. The basis of trust is trustworthiness. No investment can be a good investment unless the people to whom the funds and administration of the investment are worthy of trust. Yet all of us are being urged every day to invest by people of whom we know nothing; to entrust our savings to people about whose trustworthiness we are ignorant.

It would be both untrue and unjust to declare that all the investment opportunities proffered of which we know no details are fraudulent or that the majority are dangerous or unsafe but there are thousands of stocks offered to the public which are fraudulent and unsafe and no investment is a safe investment for you unless you know the men behind the proposition and their records and backing.

The investor should look upon himself as a money lender and his first impulse should be to lend that money safely and with good and sufficient security so that when the day of reckoning comes he will find both interest and principal safe. Judge for yourself whether it is safer to intrust your money, your savings to a company or a corporation which has but a few men, even trustworthy men, behind it or to place it where the whole public is behind the investment. In government savings securities, War Savings Stamps, Treasury Savings Certificates and Liberty Bonds everybody is behind the investment. It is backed by the entire resources, wealth and strength of the nation.

The question involved in today's election is one of interest to every property owner and resident of Seymour. Everyone entitled to vote should express his sentiments. We should not side step the issue. The polls will be open until 8 o'clock in order to give the public ample opportunity to make decision. Only by a general expression may the wish of the majority be known.

SOCIAL EVENTS

AMICK-SHERWOOD.

The following clipping is taken from the Mitchell Commercial regarding the marriage of Miss Claudia Amick and Dr. W. C. Sherwood. The bride, who is a trained nurse, is well known in this city, and has been called here in a number of cases during the past few years:

Dr. Sherwood surprised his many friends here by getting off the train Wednesday night with all the grips he could carry and bringing with him Mrs. W. C. Sherwood, formerly Miss Claudia A. Amick, a registered nurse, of Louisville. Dr. Sherwood and Miss Amick were married at high noon Wednesday at Louisville. In her capacity as nurse Miss Amick was called here to care for Miss Mahan some time ago. Dr. Sherwood was Miss Mahan's physician. The sequel came Wednesday noon.

The doctor had rooms fitted up in his office building and he and Mrs. Sherwood are very comfortably fitted up and living there.

As soon as the word was passed around Thursday morning, and such word certainly can travel, friends began coming in and grabbing off the Doctor's good cigars and paying for them with congratulations.

LEAP YEAR PARTY.

JAPAN FACES FIGHT IN ORGANIZATION OF DIET

Government Announces That Department of Justice Will Have Control of Election.

By United Press.

Tokio, April 23—The time for the general election which is to elect members to the Diet, to take the place of that which was suddenly dissolved recently, has been set for May 10, and tremendous interest is being taken in the event, with both sides determined to fight to the last ditch.

The government has given out that the department of justice, which will have control of the election, will take most stringent measures in order to prevent disturbances or irregularities, and that it will take drastic steps against anyone found to be interfering with the working of the machinery.

While soon after the dissolution of the Diet it was generally believed that the government would have a comparatively easy chance of victory, owing to the fact that the party in power always has a great advantage, this belief appears now to be changing to some extent. This is because of the fact that many of the business men, who have always been the strong supporters of the Hara business government, are now coming out in opposition to the administration, owing to its proposal to raise the tax rate, a step which will be imperatively necessary to provide funds for the great increases in the army and navy budgets, to which the government is pledged.

In order to combat the increase in the tax rate, particularly that of wealthy men and corporations, a taxation investigation club has been formed by members of chambers of commerce, stock exchanges and insurance associations, which intends to lead the fight against the tax increase, and this will without doubt cause some difference in the line-up of the forces at the polls.

Considerable fear is also being felt that the masses may attempt to make their influence felt, and some papers and popular leaders have even gone as far as to predict that Japan is likely to see demonstrations similar to the riot riots of the fall of 1918, in the near future. The ugly temper of the working people is being shown by frequent "go slow" strikes, a form of expression which is rapidly becoming the popular form of labor demonstration in Japan. Thus the tramcar men, who only a few weeks ago won out in a strike for higher wages, are again getting ready to enforce a demand for shorter hours by means of giving the worst possible service, and various other workers in different parts of Japan are taking similar action. The situation is summed up by the Jiji, one of the leading Tokyo dailies, which says:

"Since the universal suffrage question became an issue in the Diet, the temper of the people has assumed a serious aspect, and the agitations conducted in Tokio have been disorderly and unseemly. Indeed, it was feared that such demonstrations would have the effect of delaying the adoption of universal suffrage. Strikes or 'go slow' campaigns have been reported from many parts of the country, and there are various movements of reconstruction."

"On account of these movements and agitations there is serious unrest among the people, and it is feared that this unrest will be further intensified by the agitation incidental to the forthcoming general election, because the issue is universal suffrage. As the election campaigns of the government and of the opposition become animated, unexpected disturbances may possibly occur, and on this point all thinking men are seriously concerned. It is to be hoped that the campaigners on both sides will take due note of the present mental condition of the people and will scrupulously refrain from improper actions or utterances."

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Miller returned to Evansville this morning after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Husted and Mrs. Ida Miller.

INDIANA BEING ORGANIZED FOR SALVATION ARMY DRIVE

Arthur R. Robinson Overseas Veteran in Charge of Campaign in This State.

Indianapolis, April 23—With thirty-seven counties already thoroughly organized and definite prospects of the whole ninety-six county organizations being completed by May 1, the state committee for the Salvation Army home service appeal, May 10 to 20, is looking forward to a successful campaign.

Major Arthur R. Robinson, overseas veteran and prominent Indianapolis lawyer, working with former senator Albert J. Beveridge and ex-Governor S. M. Ralston, members of the state committee, has made public his plan for organizing every town and county in the state to a full understanding and appreciation of the Salvation Army work.

According to Major Robinson's plan, organization of each county is being put in the hands of a county chairman, local to the community. The county chairman in turn is appointing his county executive committee, to be composed of representative citizens of the community, officers of the civic organization and the American Legion. The county chairman also appoints his publicity chairman for the county and his county treasurer. Appointment of the township chairman is also part of the duty of the county chairman.

The township chairman then divides his community into sectors or precincts with captains in charge of each sector, so that no person will lose the opportunity to show that he believes in the work of the Salvation Army.

In a statement to each community, recently published Major Robinson, speaking for the state committee said: "It shall be our endeavor to point out in this appeal through personal contact with actual friends, through the columns of the newspapers, through personal letter and through speakers that the home service work of the Salvation Army is the people's work and the business of financing that service is the people's business. With such an understanding we feel most sanguine of a splendid response."

BRITISH TAKE STAND FAVORABLE TO GERMANY

Lloyd George's Statement Comes Following Charge by Premier Millerand.

By United Press
San Remo, April 23.—The British government does not consider that Germany has violated the treaty of Versailles or shown bad faith in its execution. Prime Minister Lloyd George said in an interview here today. He indicated Great Britain does not consider unreasonable the German request that her army be increased from 100,000 allowed by the treaty to double that number.

Lloyd George's statement came less than twenty-four hours after Premier Millerand of France, had declared that Germany had repeatedly violated the treaty and indicated French opposition to the German request for a large army.

"Germany is a sick country," Lloyd George said. "She may be compared to a paralyzed man whose members no longer obey the commands of his brain, consequently we cannot expect of her what we would demand of a healthy country."

In a statement to the American correspondents Lloyd George said he regretted the United States would not participate directly in the final drafting of the treaty.

The membrane of the throat

He advises an inexpensive home-

Thousands are making this be-

Pour three-quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Arcine into a pint

Gargle the throat as directed

TREATMENT OF ONE WEEK DID UNUSUAL GOOD

In Seven Days, Trutona's Benefits Surpassed All Other Combined, Woman Says.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 22.—"One week's treatment of Trutona has done more for me than all of the other medicines I've ever taken, combined," was the convincing statement recently of Mrs. Bilda Smith, 59 years old, well-known Indianapolis woman, residing at 511 West Henry Street. Mrs. Smith was so happy that she then added:

"For the past eight years I have been very nervous and seldom cared for anything to eat. What little food
I did eat didn't agree with me. It seemed like a lump of lead had formed in my stomach. I was badly constipated and would sometimes go for several days without an action of my bowels. My head would often swim so that I'd have to catch hold of something to keep from falling. No one knows how much I suffered."

"The different kind of medicines I tried didn't seem to reach my ailments. But I'm thankful now that I have at last found a medicine in Trutona that can cope with my troubles.
My bowels are regular now, and you never saw anyone with a more ravenous appetite than I now have. That lumpy sensation in my stomach is gone and I'm not nervous any more.
Nothing excites me as it used to."

"I hope everyone suffering as I have done will try Trutona. They'll surely be repaid in good health. If any one wants to know more about this wonderful medicine I will gladly tell them more fully."

Trutona is really a medicine of unusual merit. It is unsurpassed as a reconstructive agency, system purifier and body invigorant. It has been declared peerless as a treatment for stomach, liver and bowel troubles.

Trutona is now being introduced and explained in Seymour at W. L.
Federmann's Drug Store.

On account of the famine in Bethlehem-Judea, Naomi with her husband and two sons sojourned in the land of Moab. After the death of her husband, her two sons married Moabitish women. After a time her sons died also. Upon the death of her sons she resolved to return to her homeland, having heard that the Lord had visited his people in giving them bread.
Her family went to Moab to escape trouble, but they only got into more trouble. It was not till Naomi was thus chastised that she resolved to return. She had the good sense to recognize that the hand of the Lord was upon her for good. Ruth and Orpah accompanied her. This she permitted, but determined to place before them frankly the difficulties which would necessarily confront them. It was this frank presentation of the difficulties and her repeated urging them to go back that furnished the occasion for Ruth's wise choice.

II. The Trials of Ruth's Choice (v.
16-18).

Much as Naomi loved her daughters-in-law, she would not have them go into this matter blindly. She wished them to know the cost of their undertaking. She told them the worst that could come upon them, then if hardships came they could only blame themselves.

Note the difficulties which confronted Ruth:

1. No chance to get married again.
Naomi told her that she had no more sons for which she could wait. In that day to be unmarried was the greatest disgrace. Furthermore, it was against God's law for the Jews to marry outside of their own people.

2. She must renounce her gods. Her idolatrous worship could not be carried on in the land where God's people dwelt. This was delicately touched upon when Orpah went back (v. 15).
Orpah went back when it was plain that there was no chance to get a husband. Now Naomi puts an additional test upon Ruth, that of giving up her religion. Naomi's very frankness in dealing with her caused Ruth to be more and more determined to cast her lot with her. No doubt she learned to love the true God through the life of this true woman. She was determined to share Naomi's journey, her home, her lodging, her lot in life and her grave in death, whatever that would be. To crown it all she would renounce her heathen gods and embrace Jehovah. When Naomi saw that Ruth's mind was fully made up she quit urging her.

III. The Glorious Issue of Ruth's Choice.

Ruth was never sorry for her choice,
for:

1. She found the true God (v. 16).

2. She found human friends (ch. 2).
As she went to glean in the fields she was led to the field of Boaz—a man of wealth and grace. The servants of Boaz treated her with consideration;
even Boaz gave instruction for special consideration to be given her.

3. A good husband and a happy home (chaps. 3 and 4). She not only secured a husband, but a man of God, who had abundance of this world's goods.

4. An honored place in the Israelitish nation (4:13-17). Though she had to forsake her own people, she became one of a nobler people.

5. She became a link in the chain of Christ's ancestry (4:18-22; cf. Matt.
1:5). The one who fully decides for Christ and gives up all for him shall get a hundredfold in this life and in the world to come, eternal life.

This story is a fine exhibition of dis-pensational truth:

(1) The famine in the land indicates the testing of the Jews; (2) the going into Moab, the sojourn of the Israelites among the nations; (3) sickness and death in Moab, the chastisement of the Jews in this present age; (4) the return to the land, the gathering of Israel to their own land; (5) Ruth following, the gathering of the Gentiles through the influence of the Jews; (6)
the marriage between Boaz and Ruth,
the union of the church with Christ.

The VALLEY of the GIANTS

By PETER B. KYNE
Author of "Cappy Ricks"

Copyright by Peter B. Kyne

Not until dinner was finished and father and son had repaired to the library for their coffee and cigars did Bryce Cardigan advert to the subject of his father's business affairs.

"Well, John Cardigan," he declared comfortably. "Suppose you start at the beginning and tell me everything right to the end. George Sea Otter informed me that you've been having trouble with this Johnny-come-lately, Colonel Pennington. Is he the man who has us where the hair is short?"

The old man nodded.

"The Squaw creek timber deal, eh?" Bryce suggested.

Again the old man nodded. "You wrote me all about that," Bryce continued. "You had him blocked which ever way he turned—so effectually blocked, in fact, that the only pleasure he has derived from his investment since is the knowledge that he owns two thousand acres of timber with the exclusive right to pay taxes on it, walk in it, look at it and admire it—in fact, do everything except log it, mill it, and realize on his investment. It must make him feel like a bully jackass."

"On the other hand," his father reminded him, "no matter what the Colonel's feeling on that score may be, misery loves company, and not until I had pulled out of the Squaw creek country and started logging in the San Hedrin watershed, did I realize that I had been considerable of a jackass myself."

"Yes," Bryce admitted, "there can be no doubt but that you cut off your nose to spite your face."

His thoughts harked back to that first season of logging in the San Hedrin, when the cloud-burst had caught the river filled with Cardigan logs and whirled them down to the bay, to crash through the log-boom at midwater and continue out to the open sea.

The old man appeared to divine the trend of his son's thoughts. "Yes, Bryce, that was a disastrous year," he declared. "The mere loss of the logs was a severe blow, but in addition I had to pay out quite a little money to settle with my customers. I was loaded up with low-priced orders that year, although I didn't expect to make any money. The orders were merely to keep the men employed."

IF EVERY WOMAN HAD HER WISH

What Most of Them Would Want

If every woman had her wish, most of them would like to be relieved of housecleaning, washing dishes and clothes.

Yet many who dislike this work never try to make it more pleasant and more agreeable.

It can be made much easier, quicker and less distasteful than you imagine. Simply use the right thing in the right place.

You've got the biggest surprise of your life coming the first time you wash clothes, dishes, clean windows, bathtubs, etc., with Joy Soap. It gives you the sort of feeling you had when the first sewing machine was shown you.

"I didn't know it was possible to do this work so easily, quickly and as well!" you'll say.

The reasons are many. Joy Soap is made with a definite purpose—for house cleaning and washing. It isn't a toilet soap—it isn't a scouring soap. It does one job and surely does it well.

Joy is made to please. It is firm and white, good to feel and pleasant to work with. You don't have to scrub and scour, simply lather and rub in. Joy does the work with a hearty good will, cutting up the dirt and grease while you mix it around.

Many a wish has come true by personal effort. Make yours come close to reality by using the right soap in the right place. Ask your grocer for Joy—the soap that "works like a wizard."

You understand, Bryce: I had a good crew, the finest in the country; and if I had shut down, my men would have scattered and—well, you know how hard it is to get that kind of a crew together again. Besides, I had never failed my boys before, and I couldn't bear the thought of failing them then. Half the mills in the country were shut down at the time, and there was a lot of distress among the unemployed. I couldn't do it, Bryce."

Bryce nodded. "And when you lost the logs, you couldn't fill those low-priced orders. Then the market commenced to jump and advanced three dollars in three months—"

"Exactly, my son. And my customers began to crowd me to fill those old orders. I couldn't expect them to suffer with me; my failure to perform my contracts, while unavoidable, nevertheless would have caused them a serious loss, and when they were forced to buy elsewhere, I paid them the difference between the price they paid my competitors and the price at which they originally placed their orders with me. And the delay caused them further loss."

He smoked meditatively for a minute. "I've always been land-poor," he explained apologetically. "Whenever I had idle money, I put it into timber in the San Hedrin watershed, because I realized that some day the railroad would build in from the south, tap that timber and double its value. I've not as yet found reason to doubt the wisdom of my course; but"—he sighed—"the railroad is a long time coming!"

John Cardigan here spoke of a most important factor in the situation. The crying need of the country was a feeder to some transcontinental railroad. By reason of natural barriers, Humboldt county was not easily accessible to the outside world except from the sea, and even this avenue of ingress and egress would be closed for days at a stretch when the harbor bar was on a rampage. With the exception of a strip of level, fertile land, perhaps five miles wide and thirty miles long and contiguous to the seacoast, the heavily timbered mountains to the north, east, and south rendered the building of a railroad that would connect Humboldt county with the outside world a profoundly difficult and expensive task.

"Don't worry, Dad. It will come," Bryce assured his father. "It's bound to."

"Yes, but not in my day. And when it comes, a stranger may own your San Hedrin timber and reap the reward of my lifetime of labor."

Again a silence fell between them, broken presently by the old man. "That was a mistake—ogging in the San Hedrin," he observed. "I had my lesson that first year, but I didn't heed it. If I had abandoned my camps there, pocketed my pride, paid Colonel Pennington two dollars for his Squaw creek timber, and rebuilt my old logging road, I would have been safe to-day. But I was stubborn; I'd played the game so long, you know—I didn't want to let that man Pennington outgame me. It's hard to teach an old dog new tricks, and besides I was obsessed with the need of protecting your heritage from attack in any direction."

GOVERNOR DESIGNATES MAY 1 AS AMERICAN DAY

Similar Action Taken in Other States to Combat Radical Socialistic Outbreaks.

In order that the people of Indiana may demonstrate their disapproval of radical socialism and internationalism, Governor Goodrich today issued a proclamation designating May 1 as American day. Similar action has been taken by most of the states, as a counter movement to the May day activities of the reds.

The proclamation follows:

"In order to combat the radical and un-American propaganda which has been cunningly spread in the United States by agitators who receive their inspiration from eastern Europe, the states of the Union are preparing to observe Saturday, May 1, this year, as American day. By this celebration it is hoped to call the attention of the American people to the vital necessity of preserving the constitution of the United States and the institutions under which we live in order that America may fulfill her high destiny.

"To the end, therefore, that the people may have the opportunity to demonstrate their loyalty to our government, their faith in our free institutions and their unequivocal disapproval of the radical socialism and internationalism which would substitute the soviet for the constitution—in short that we may again demonstrate to the world that we are real Americans—I, James P. Goodrich, Governor of Indiana, do hereby proclaim Saturday, May 1, to be American day, and to recommend that the day be observed by appropriate exercises by your municipalities, our patriotic organizations, by the children in our public schools and by our citizens in general. As May 1 falls on Saturday, I suggest that the superintendents, teachers and those having charge of our schools prepare appropriate programs to be given on the afternoon of April 30, and I further suggest that these officials co-operate with other citizens in making Saturday, May 1, a day of patriotism."

COATS FOR SPRING

Whoever is looking for a coat for spring will give this new arrival more than one glance and the second glance is apt to be a lingering if not a longing one. For there are several innovations to be considered in this dignified garment. It hangs in almost straight lines, for one thing and for another the sleeves are smaller and fit more closely than is usual. The collar is entirely new with not a trace of the popular muffer style in it and finally, tucks and plaits in the material serve for decoration. The cuffs and pockets are both made of the plaited fabric. As a rule coats for spring are about three-quarter length and modeled in simple designs. They depend upon smart lines and good looking materials rather than on decorations, for distinction, and this makes them appropriate for street or travel. Yokes, plaits and large pockets, cozy fabrics and a flavor of sports wear in style are winning approval.
